Social Finance Vibe 2022 is the second edition of the fully virtual event that will welcome over 600 participants and feature the biggest speaker line up ever. As in 2021, the event will be fully free of charge!

This year, the event will focus on social economy. Over two days, we will explore opportunities for various social economy actors, the role of financial providers in social economy ecosystem, and mega trends of green and digital transition. We will welcome the region's biggest leaders - altogether 50+ expert professionals to share their insights.

The last few years have been disruptive for many people and organisations but there has also been a period of innovation and enterprise. In many areas, the advance accelerated – particularly in green and digitalization. Under darkening skies and beset by new challenges, we are in unfamiliar terrain where nothing is as easy as we supposed but now we have the hope offered by new insights into what is possible for all of us. How can we make the most of the new flexibility we have discovered? How can we work together and re-imagine our collective vision for the resilient future of social finance sector? We will try to answer these questions during Social Finance Vibe 2022. Register today and secure your place!

Agenda Highlights

Three inter-related conference topics that will be explored at the event are: Social Economy Actors, Financing Social Economy Actors and Mega Trends in Social Economy. By bringing together participants from the EU Institutions, MFIs, Social Investors, Ethical/Social Banks, National Associations and Social Enterprise Financial Organisations we will be critically examining these issues, challenging current practice and exploring the opportunities that are changing the world of Social Economy.

Conference Formats

The conference comprises 3 formats: Plenary sessions, Talks with Leaders and Inspirational Talks that reflect the diverse ways in which the event supports knowledge exchange for all stakeholders. They are designed to inspire, create new knowledge, showcase, engage and debate. Making sure that active participation fully connects you with the boldest new thinking, shaping the future of our sector.

Social Economy Actors

In the thematic block on Social Economy Actors we will present characteristics of social enterprises and the unique nature of operations and reflect on the dual nature of microfinance institutions being socially-driven enterprises themselves and at the same time providing financial services to other social enterprises.

Financing Social Economy

Several sessions on the topic of Financing Social Economy will introduce EU-funded financing programmes and will present examples of financing instruments that are particularly appropriate for social economy actors.

Mega trends and more

We will also provide an update on the recent developments concerning mega trends, such as digital and green transition and present interesting cases of supporting local agriculture, and enhancing proximity to markets. Finally yet importantly, we will reflect together how to overcome the pandemic crisis and what is the role for investors and policy makers in addressing direct and indirect impacts of the war in Ukraine.

And our experts from "Talks with Leaders" will take you on a journey far beyond conference themes. Bringing new perspectives and new impulses for innovation.
